Security Guard and/or Private Investigator Licence: Application package

Apply, renew or restore your licence online at:
ServiceOntario.ca/PrivateSecurity

Instructions

Pages 1 to 8 of this document are instructions to help you successfully complete the application process. Please make sure that you read all of these pages before you fill out the application.

Pages 9 to 15 makeup the application and are to be printed and filled-out. Incomplete or improperly filled-out applications will cause the return of your application.

Pages 16 to 18 is Appendix A: Eligibility to Hold and Licence

This application package contains the following:

- Pages 1 to 8 contains tips on how to successfully complete the application (photo requirements, acceptable identification document list, etc.)
- Pages 9 to 12 Security Guard and Private Investigator Licence Application
- Pages 13 to 15 Guarantor Information Form
- Pages 16 to 18 Appendix A: Eligibility to Hold a Licence - Clean Criminal Record Regulation

Before you apply you must have:

- successfully completed the mandated training and testing and received an Ontario testing completion number, visit ServiceOntario.ca/PrivateSecurity to learn more
- a clean criminal record according to Ontario Regulation 37/08 pursuant the Private Security and Investigative Services Act, 2005
- reviewed Appendix A: Eligibility to Hold a Licence - Clean Criminal Record on Page 16 of these instructions to make sure there are no offences limiting your ability to apply
- the ability to legally work in Canada, and be 18 years old
- a passport-quality photo that meets requirements listed in Section C on Page 3 of these instructions, and
- copies of two (2) valid (non-expired) identification documents (IDs) (front and back) and ready to submit. For more details read Section D on Page 4 of these instructions.

Tip: make sure your writing is neat and easy to read. Print clearly using black or dark blue ink. Do not use correction fluid or white-out on your application form. If you make a mistake, cross it out, write the correct information beside the error and initial it.

A – Applicant Information

- You can apply for a security guard or a private investigator licence with this application but if you want to hold both licences, you must check the box next to dual licence.
- Ontario testing completion number: this number would have been provided to you by the testing center upon successfully completing your test. If you do not have this number please contact the test delivery centre where you took your test.
- Ontario licence number: you will have this number if you already have an Ontario security guard, private investigator or dual licence and you are renewing or restoring your licence. A new licence number will be provided to you once you have completed the training and testing.
- Restore a licence: re-activating an expired licence. The licence must be re-activated in the same category that it expired in. Once re-activated, it is valid for a 2-year term.
- For information on training and testing visit ServiceOntario.ca/PrivateSecurity.
- Licence from another province/territory: if you have a valid (non-expired) licence from another province or territory, you may not have to complete any more testing. Enter your licence information into the application to determine whether you need further training or testing.

B – Personal Information

- Your first and last names on the application form must match what is on the two (2) identification documents (ID) you are submitting with this application.
- If your last name has changed please include your former name(s) in the 'Other name' section. For example: your last name before marriage or before a name change.
- Enter your email address to receive important communications including email reminders.
- If your Ontario mailing address is different from your permanent address, please provide a mailing address in Ontario. This is the address where your licence and all licencing communication will be mailed.

If you are applying for your licence for the first time, you will need to submit a passport-quality photograph. If you are renewing, you will need to submit a new photograph every 6 years.

Your photo must:

- be sized 50 mm wide X 70 mm high (2 inches wide X 2 3/4 inches long), and ensure the image does not need to be cropped (see example below)
- be clear, sharp and in focus
- be taken in front of a plain white or light-coloured background showing a clear difference between your face and the background
- be taken within the last 6 months
- display your natural skin tones
- avoid shadows across the face or shoulders, around the ears or in the background
- be taken straight on, with face and shoulders centered and squared to the camera
- be taken with eyes open and clearly visible, mouth closed, no smiling
- be in colour or in black and white, and
- not be re-touched, altered, taken from an existing photo or a photo of you in a group or personal setting. For example: the photo you submit should look similar to the photo on your driver's licence, passport or other travel documentation.

Glasses:

You can wear prescription glasses, as long as your eyes are clearly visible and there is no glare in the glasses. Sunglasses cannot be worn.

Red eye:

Photos where there is a red eye effect will not be accepted.

Hats and head coverings:

You cannot wear hats or anything that covers your head, unless it is worn daily for religious beliefs or medical reasons. However, your full face must still be clearly visible in your photo and the head covering must not cast any shadows on your face.

D – Acceptable Identification Documents

You must provide photocopies of the front and back of two (2) different identification documents (IDs) from the lists below.

Photocopies must:

- be of the two (2) different identification documents (IDs) that you will be using in the licence application and guarantor form
- have your first and last names match on both pieces of identification and on your licence application
- be high quality, clearly visible copies of the original identification documents
- be copies of both the front and back of both identification documents
- be current and valid - non-expired, not suspended or revoked, and
- be submitted in English or French. If you are using documents issued by foreign governments and they are in a language other than English or French, you must include a translation by a certified translator

These two (2) identification documents must cover the following requirements to prove your identity (name, photo, signature, date of birth) and eligibility to work in Canada.

You need two (2) photocopies of original ID, one from List 1 and one from List 2.

List 1: choose one (1)

Government-issued photo identification document (name, photo, signature, and date of birth)

- any valid driver's licence
- Ontario enhanced driver's licence
- any valid passport
- Ontario Photo Card
- certificate of Canadian citizenship (card with photo)
- certificate of Indian Status
- permanent resident card (issued before February 4, 2012), or
- Canadian Department of National Defence Identification Card

List 2: choose one (1) document which confirms your eligibility to work in Canada

- Canadian birth certificate
- certificate of Canadian citizenship
- Canadian passport
- Ontario enhanced driver's licence
- permanent resident card/confirmation of permanent residence
- naturalization card (issued before January 1, 1974)
- valid work permit
- record of landing
- certificate of Indian Status
- retention certificate, or
- registration of birth abroad certificate

Note:

- New Permanent Resident (PR) cards, issued on or after February 4, 2012, do not have a signature and will not be accepted as proof of identity; cards issued before February 4, 2012, are accepted as an identification document from List 1.
- If you submit a record of service identification card, issued by the Canadian Department of National Defence, the identification card must have an issue date within the past 5 years.
- Any health card or social insurance cards are not acceptable identification documents.

E – Declaration of Convictions and Outstanding Charges

- Review Appendix A: Eligibility to Hold a Licence – Clean Criminal Record Regulation on Page 16 of these instructions or online at http://www.e-laws.gov.on.ca/html/regs/english/elaws_regs_080037_e.htm.
- If you have been convicted of any of these offences, and have not received a pardon, you are not eligible for a licence.
- The application requires an answer to the following question: Do you have any convictions for which a pardon has not been granted and/or findings of guilt or any outstanding unresolved charges for offences under the laws of any country, state, province or territory?
- If your answer to the question is “Yes,” and you are still submitting an application you must declare all convictions and charges in the fields provided. If more space is needed, attach a separate sheet.
- Please note: if your application is denied, your payment will not be refunded.

Examples of things you must declare in this section include:

- criminal convictions for which a pardon has not been granted (all jurisdictions);
- all pending charges against you which have not yet been resolved (all jurisdictions);
- findings of guilt (including offences for which you have received a conditional or absolute discharge);
- provincial offences (for example, Highway Traffic Act violations); and/or
- unpaid fines related to provincial offences

Note: “all jurisdictions” means under the laws of any country, state, province (not just Ontario) or territory. You do not need to declare:

- convictions for which you have received a pardon
- offences committed while you were a young person, as defined under the Young Offender Act, Youth Criminal Justice Act, or Juvenile Delinquent Act

F – Declaration of Consent to the Release of Information

Make sure you have read and understand everything in this section. Sign and date your application form. Applications that are not signed cannot be processed.

G – Payment Options

- Cost: $80 for a security guard or private investigator licence, $160 for a dual licence

Acceptable Payments (payable to the Minister of Finance):

If you apply by mail

- certified cheque
- money order, or
- bank draft

Note: please make payable to Minister of Finance

If you apply online

- Visa
- MasterCard
- Interac Online®
- Pre-paid credit card

We do not accept cash or personal cheques as payment for any applications.

When a prepaid credit card is used for payment, keep the card until your application has been processed.

Once a payment has been received it is non-refundable. This includes payments made towards applications that are denied due to ineligibility, returned or withdrawn.

Note: If an application is returned to an applicant for correction or due to missing information, applicants have 90 calendar days to respond. If the required information is not submitted within 90 calendar days, the application is deemed closed and payment will be retained. If the required information is submitted after 90 calendar days, a new licensing fee will be required.
